REPORT

OF THE

SALES OF SOUTHERN

THE

COUNTY PAPERS,

FOR THE

COUNTY OF BELKNAP,

For the Year Ending

MARCH 1st, 1861.

LACONIA:

S. C. BALDWIN, PRINTER.

1861.

12 47 Mrs. Cynthia Libby,
 00 32 Rhoda Davis,
 00 10 " Rosamond Seiles,
 00 00 John Libby,
 50 00 Physicians' bills,

REPORT.

Amount of boarding prisoners in Jail.

32 61

10 32 61

The amount drawn from the Treasury of the County of Belknap by the County Commissioners for the support of paupers and board of prisoners in the Jail and the County Farm establishment, for the year ending March 1, 1861, $800 00.

Received of Edwin Willey,	$1 00
" of Hubbard Jackson,	2 00
" for stock sold from farm,	43 00
" for fines,	10 00
" for board at Jail,	2 25
	58 25
	$858 25

In order to show the actual expense of the County Farm and the support of paupers thereon, the amount paid for the support of paupers off from the farm, and the amount of board of prisoners in Jail, should be deducted from the above sum.

Amount paid for paupers off from the farm, by contract, viz :

Paid John Weeks,	$52 00
Mrs. Hall,	1 00
Annette Libby,	5 14
Hubbard Jackson,	7 00
Franklin B. Evans,	3 50

Mrs. Cynthia Libby,	12 47
" Rhoda Davis,	32 00
" Rosamond Stiles,	10 00
John Libby,	3 00
Physicians' bills,	7 50

 $133 61

Amount of boarding prisoners in Jail, $192 00

 325 61

 $532 64

The above sum of $532 64 with the income of the farm has defrayed all the expense of maintaining the paupers upon the farm the past year, including the salary of the Agent and wife, being $300 00.

Average number of paupers on the County Farm the past year, 15.

The average expense for supporting paupers at the County Farm, including board, clothing, medical attendance, &c., &c., sixty-one cents per week. (0 61)

Amount paid the several towns for the support of County paupers:

SEPTEMBER TERM.

Paid Upper Gilmanton,	$161 00
Alton,	17 50
New Hampton,	16 00

*As the Legislature changed the time of the sitting of Courts in this County, we can only get the amount paid the Towns up to the September Term. The next term will not be held until the last of this month, which will render this report imperfect as regards the amount paid to the Towns.
